‘A New Era of Reading’ Lecture Series

The TKU Library’s current series of lectures, entitled the ‘New Era of Reading’, have officially commenced, with the first lecture ‘iPad: Reading, Listening, and Life’ having been held on April 26.

The first lecture was delivered by the Managing Director of IGT, Huang Chi-Zhi. Apart from introducing ipad-related software, Mr. Huang also shared his own experiences using digital equipment in day-to-day life. He also introduced several popular online sharing tools, such as Dropbox, QR Code, and Podcast, as well as e-book software applications, PDF and E PUB.
