淡江時報 第 971 期

TKU Teacher’s Take Career Counseling Workshop

學聲大代誌

【Ting-yu Su, Tamsui Campus Report】In order to strengthen staff members’ ability in terms of career counseling, the Career Guidance Section is holding the first annual Career Training Workshop- CPAS. Vice President of Career Magazine, Yin-hua Chi, and 4 speakers will give a 32 hour seminar based on career knowledge and information to 12 departments of TKU. Director of the Career Guidance Section, Fang-ling Wu, expressed, “After the training, teachers will receive certification and it’s my hope that students will be able to better prepare for their career through the teacher’s counseling. Assistant professor of the Department of Chinese, Wei-shu Lin, expressed, “After the seminar I really see the importance of career counseling and we will be able to more effectively assist students and create more internships.”