

SOFT TENNIS INVITATION TOURNAMENT IN FENG-CHIA UNIVERSITY

英文電子報

The soft tennis school team attended an invitation tournament at the Fengchia University on September 16th. The man team had outstanding performance compared with other 9 teams and received the special honors of the second place of the group participation in the contest.

Many schools including TKU, NTU and Cheng Kung University etc. with many excellent players participated in this competition. Our school team is lack of enough well-trained players because some experienced players have graduated. Newly appointed man's team leader Lein Lee-yuan (junior student of civil engineering) stated, "This is a good opportunity to present what we've practiced and trained during the whole summer."

Chiao Bo-yun (sophomore of mechanical and electro-mechanical engineering), new player in the school team, had great performance at the game when he had the tournament with a NTU champion player of junior college cup. He said that the game helped him to open the view to the world and also provided a good chance to practice crisis-solving. The team leader of Feng Chia University, Chiao Wei-ron said with praises, "In terms of resources and qualifications, it is obvious to see the progress of TKU." (~ Peiling Hsia)
