

TAMKANG FORUM HELD TODAY

英文電子報

College of International Studies will hold the Tamkang Forum at Ching-sheng International Conference Hall at 9:40 am, May 28th. Zhao Quan-sheng, Chair of East Asian Research Center of American University, and TKU' s teachers are invited to discuss "The relationships between big countries in the world and the influences to Taiwan" . Teachers and students are all welcome to join the forum. Themes including "relations between Taiwan, US, China, and Japan" , "How Taiwan develop relations with big countries" , etc. will be presented by Zhao Quan-sheng in his 50-minutie speech. Teachers of TKU will then have the discussion coming from different angles. Tai Wan-chin, Dean of College of International Studies, hopes that Tamkang Forum would provide experts and scholars a platform for expressing opinions, and he also expects students to learn from the event. (~Johnny Chu)