"I will personally visit all the 45 departments and graduate institutes of the university in the coming weeks to boost the morale of all TKU teachers, students and staffs," she noted. She added that the TKU has arranged the Ching-sheng Memorial Hall and Hwei-wen Hall to serve as the two main sites to welcome the visiting group from MOE. To better prepare for the inspection, the Educational Evaluation Section will hold a conference on March 13 to brief to all the related staffs on the process of the upcoming evaluation. The staffs and teachers in TKU Langyang campus will also be joining the videoconference. A rehearsal of the MOE inspection tour will be held on March 25.
