To celebrate TKU' s 60th anniversary and the 28th anniversary of Graduate Institute of International Affairs and Strategic Studies (GIIASS), GIIASS will hold a conference at Chung–cheng Memorial Hall, Taipei Campus, on May 8 meanwhile, a ceremony will be held at noon in TKU Taipei Campus as well for the establishment of Alumni Association of GIIASS.

Entitled “Construct Strategy,” the conference will invite Tsai Chao–ming, ex–Director of National Security Bureau, Dr. Hung Lu–hsun, Professor from Master’ s Program of Political Science Studies, Fu Hsing Kang College, National Defense University, and Dr. Tzeng Fuh–sheng, advisor of National Security Division, National Policy Foundation to attend. Dr. Wong Ming–hsien, Chair of GIIASS, expected that this conference could help construct TKU’ s own discourse on strategic studies. In addition, GIIASS will also hold a series of celebrating events in the future such as co–holding paintball game with Office of Military Education and Training. It is hoped that students could come and join the grand occasion altogether. ( ~Shu–chun Yen )
