

The Macau Drama Script Writing Contest

英文電子報

On the 28th of December, 2010, TKU overseas-Chinese student Liang Zi-heng, was awarded first prize in the Macau Drama Script Writing Contest. His script, entitled “The 114th day of the journey the 26th story”, finished first among 20 such scripts, and earned him MOP $7,000 (approximately NT $28,000).

The script tells the tale of a young man who, in order to live out his dream, travels the world by bike. During the journey, he meets a series of setbacks and crises, but persists to eventually realize his true ambitions.

Zi-heng voiced thanks to his friends in Macau, for continually encouraging him to write scripts. “While in high school, I did a bit of acting in the school drama club. In the end I found I actually preferred writing scripts” .