

TKU Takes Part in the Ministry of Defense Spratly Islands Study Camp

學校要聞

In order to bring a practical element to student learning, the Director of the TKU Graduate Institute of International Affairs and Strategic Studies, Dr. Wong Ming-Hsien, along with Sun Guo-Hua (Professor, Department of Mechanical and Electro-Mechanical Engineering) recently led students to participate in the Ministry of Defense Spratly Islands Summer Camp. The camp involved experiencing the local marine ecology, learning about the South China Sea, about marine law, and the importance of national sovereignty.
