

The Professional Competency and Service Learning Program

學校要聞

In the second semester of the 2012 - 2013 academic year, the scope of the Professional Competency and Service Learning Program mushroomed to encompass 34 separate courses, 33 faculty members, and a total of over 1,400 students. Each department organized semester-long service learning courses to correlate with its own specialized discipline and carried out such courses in the local community or in collaboration with non-profit organizations.

Activities held in some of the courses included helping to raise funds for a nursing home, serving as English tour guides, and visiting the Investigation Bureau, Ministry of Justice.
