On November 21st the Graduate Institute of China Studies Tamkang University invited Vice Chairman of Mainland Affairs Council, Professor C. C. Lin, to give a lecture on the “Cross Strait Trade Services Agreement Evaluation”. Professor C.C described and analyzed the procedures of the Cross Strait Service contract, putting to rest doubts and concerns.

In attendance was Dean of the Graduate Institute of China Studies, Wu-ueh Chang, Assistant Professor Jiann-Jong Guo and 135 students. Wu-ueh Chang stated, “It is increasingly important for Taiwan to become more directly involved in the benefits of cross-strait trading. In order for trading services to become available on a wider scale, it is crucial that we sign these agreements that will have a positive impact on Taiwan’ s economy.”
