

The Allied University Sale for Charity is a Good Cause For Shopping

學聲大代誌

【Reported by Xue-yi Wu, Tamkang Times】 The Annual 2014 Northern University Allied Charity Sale began on March 17th. Tamkang University has contributed 350,000 different items to Hai Bao Street for this cause. Well-known celebrities began the event at noon on Monday and a raffle took place for the participating students and teachers. Other guests stars will also be making an appearance including celebrities Hong Ren Hsiao, and TKU Alumni Kou-you Gu and Yi-hsin Liu for performances from the 18th through the 21st. The performances will include guitar, dance and songs that are guaranteed to captivate the audience. Nearby there will also be a truck designated for blood donations. Please feel free to participate and help out in any way you can. The “Stars Section” is sure to have a lot of great items that have been signed by famous entertainers and athletes. The activity coordinator and third year student of the Department of Chemical and Material Engineering, You-quan Wang stated, “Not only are there a lot of useful products to purchase, they are extremely low priced and convenient. All of the purchases will be donated to charity so you don’ t have to feel guilty for shopping.”

