

TKU Alumni Xing Wang Appointed Head Supervisor at Yahoo

新聞萬花筒

【Reported by Xin-yu Wang, Tamkang Times】 Tamkang University Alumni from the Department of English, Xing Wang, is appointed the new head supervisor at Yahoo. Xing Wang graduated in 1986 and entered into Yahoo as a manager in 2010 because of his over 20 years of experience with online media. Speaker from the Center for General Education and Core Curriculum, Wen-chih Huang, expressed, “Xing Wang was my partner at the Taipei Toastmasters Club. He has always had very impressive language skills and is a very independent thinker. While he was at the university, it was apparent to everyone that he would one day have a very prestigious and successful career.” Executive Director of the Office of Alumni Services and Resources Development, Chun-young Perng, stated, “In the future if we have an opportunity, I would love for him to come back for an interactive discussion with the students.”