

Academics at TKU Increase in Versatility

學校要聞

【Tamkang Times】 Tamkang University continues to improve the diversity of professional opportunities provided through raising the quality of academic studies, effectiveness and students' competitive capabilities. This year its promoting the Academic Research Development program and Academic Quality Improvement Plan. These new policies were designed from the survey of collected data, pointing out the needs for future development. The results of the policies are estimated to be evaluated in 2016. On October 24th an administrative meeting will be held, detailing policy modifications and changes. You can apply online before October 21st at link <http://enroll.tku.edu.tw/>
