On December 4th the Division of Continuing Education gave a tour of Tamsui Campus to 160 students of Chinese language. The students were from various countries were lead by Dean of International Affairs, Pei-wha Chilee, who showed them the unique beauties of TKU. Director of the Center of Chinese Language, Hsiang-hua Chou, expressed, “It’ s my hope that we can bring in lots of international guests so that they may be able to share their experience of TKU around the world. Today Pei-wha Chilee is bringing international attention to the Chinese Language Center, which is one of the primary objectives of TKU.

In the afternoon they took a tour of historic sites such as Fort Santo Domingo, Little White House and many others. A student from India happily expressed, “This is my first time to visit Tamsui Old Street and I really like the snacks and treats they have to offer.” (Article provided by Yi-mei Chen, Picture provided by the Chinese Language Center)
