【Reported by Ya-han Cao, Tamkang Times】 The Marie Curie Field Trip is about to begin! The Chemistry Mobile is working in cooperation with the Center for European Union Studies to give students a chance to participate in an exciting academic tour around Taiwan with no restriction to department major. Assistant of the Center for European Union Studies, Shi-Chia Chow, expressed, “Marie Curie is someone whose work touches on both the subject of science and European Studies. The Center for European Union Studies is offering a scholarship to encourage participating students.” The deadline for registration is on March 20th.
