

An Insight into Factors for Success

As part of TKU' s Character Development Credit Program, on October 29 TKU alumnus Lee-Feng Chien visited the Tamsui Campus to deliver a special lecture. Lee-Feng Chien is the current General Manager of Google Taiwan. In the lecture, he talked about “Innovative Thinking and Talented Professionals of the Future” . He drew on his vast experience in the workforce and described how he began to develop a global perspective.

He also paid tribute to the education he received at Tamkang, which he said helped to shape his optimistic and creative way of thinking. Lee-Feng urged students to show courage in all their decisions; to try new things and be adventurous. To Lee-Feng, courage is the source of all innovation.

2012/11/13