

Tamkang University' s Alumni Score Exceptionally on Diplomat Test

【Reported by Jia-yun Cai, Tamkang Times】 Tamkang University' s Alumni from the Graduate Institute of the Americas and the Graduate Institute of European Studies received outstanding test scores on the specialized exam for diplomatic personnel. Both Yen-cen Lin and Shih-hsiu Chen scored exceptionally high on the test for western immigration administration and Zheng-yuan Yang scored high marks in the section of portuguese language.

Dean of the Institute of European Studies, Chiu-Ching Kuo, stated, “It' s extremely difficult to pass the diplomatic examination, not to mention attain such a high score. This displays the great potential of Tamkang University students and the excellent instruction from the professors. Dean of the Graduate Institute of the Americas, Hsiao-chuan Chen, stated, “Zheng-yuan Yang not only learned English and Spanish, but now he has been certified for portuguese! What can I say buy great job and congratulations? I wish them all the best success on their road into a bright future.”

2013/12/27