The opening ceremony of “Yu You-ren’ s calligraphy and fine words exhibition” was held in Carrie Chang Fine Arts Center at 10 a.m., June 8th. Especially the Yu You-ren’ s works of “Bai Tzi Ling— Cursive Script” and “Simplicity, Truthfulness, Firmness, Perseverance”, also known as school motto, were written by the e-pen system to show the handwriting of calligraphy characters dynamically. While enjoying reading the calligraphy, people seemed to smell the real ink. The e-pen system created by TKU is assimilated written by Chang Ben-hang, Associate Director of the Carrie Chang Fine Arts Center, to demonstrate masterpiece stroke by stroke in dynamic showing way. Except Yu You-ren’ s works of “Bai Tzi Ling”, Wang Xi-zhi’ s “Preface to the Orchid Pavilion Poetry” was also completed. E-pen handwriting show is arranged at the exhibition at periods of 10:00–11:00, 12:30–13:30, and 15:00~16:00 from Sunday to Friday. (~Johnny Chu)
