

Tasting French Delicacies

新聞萬花筒

This week, on the 9th of December, the TKU French Department will be holding a French delicacy food-tasting activity. Participation is limited to 50 places and registration ends on the 7th of Dec.

As part of the event, the owner of the well-known Taiwanese French patisserie franchise La Douceur, Jiang Song-ting, will share with participants the experiences he had while learning at France's most prestigious cooking academy, Le Cordon Rouge, and teach participants how to make delicious French delicacies. He will also bring a range of mouthwatering French desserts for attendees to sample.

Interested in attending?

Then head to the Department of French office at FL416 and ask for Deng Li-hui. But be quick, because places are limited.
