

The TKU Post Mid-term Costume Party

英文電子報

On April 29, the TKU Bartender Skills Learning Club is set to hold a ‘Post Mid-term Costume Party’. During the party, apart from introducing various cocktail beverages – including the “Blue Lagoon” and the “Czech Rose” – there will also be a live DJ, to give the attending students the sense of truly being at a bar. There will also be a prize giveaway, where students can win the chance to take part in cocktail-making classes.

The head of the Bartender Skills Learning Club, Cheng Hung Jen, explained that “the activity has been scheduled for just after the mid-term exams in the hope that it helps students relax and wind down after the tense exam period”.

The activity will not only allow club members to display all that they have learned, but also enable even more people to learn about the unique club.
