

Thanksgiving at Tamkang

學校要聞

The third Thursday of November is when families gather together to celebrate Thanksgiving. This year at TKU, three academic departments each held large-scale events to kick-off the festivities. The TKU Department of English held a Student-Teacher Thanksgiving Dinner at the TKU Student Activity Center, Tamsui Campus. The dinner event featured a buffet with seven rows of delicious dishes and a large roast turkey. It was attended by over 600 people, including Department of English students, teachers, staff, and alumni.
