

16 OUTSTANDING YOUTHS WILL BE CITED

英文電子報

The selection of outstanding youths for this 2002 academic year has been completed and a total of 16 outstanding performances in both academic and social service were elected among those competitors.

They will be cited at a meeting of class representatives and the winner will pocket NT2000 cash prize, a citation and a great merit.

They are Wong Lu-chung, a student from the Graduate Institute of Southeast Asian Studies Chen Ying-wen, a senior from the Department of Information and Library Science Huang Tse-tsun, a junior from the Department of Chinese Chuang Su-han, a senior from the Department of Educational Technology Lin Hsueh-hui, a senior from the Department of Management Peng Min-yi, a sophomore from the Department of French Tsao Hsiu-yun, a senior from the Department of Spanish Chen Chih-ming, a student of Graduate Institute of Management Science Tsai Wei-su, a student of the Graduate Institute of Industrial Economics Su Yenn-shuen, a senior from the Department of Business Administration Kang Tin-yu, a senior from the Department of Industrial Economics Hsiao Wen-chuan, a senior from the Department of Business Administration Hu Su-ping, a senior from the Department of Water Resources and Environmental Engineering Lin Po-chen, a student of the Graduate Institute of Electrical Engineering in Doctorate Program Lin Hsiu-ming, a student of Graduate Institute of Computer Science and Information Engineering in Doctoral Program and Chu Su-fang, a student of Graduate Institute of Chemistry in Doctoral Program.

All of their academic performances are excellent. For example, Lin Po-chen of the Graduate Institute of Electrical Engineering in Doctoral Program won the 2001 Macronics Gold Sillicon Medal. Lin Hsiu-ming of Gradual Institute of Computer Science and Information Engineering in Doctorate Program has presented papers to various international seminars. Chu Su-fang of Graduate Institute of Chemistry in Doctoral Program has an excellent performance when she cooperated with a National Taiwan University (NTU) research team. Hu Su-ping of Department of Water Resource and Environmental Engineering has always won the first in academic results in the past four years in her department.

In addition to having well performed in the academic field, they have also performed well in social services.