

COLORFUL PROGRAMS TO BE HELD TO CELEBRATE TKU 52ND BIRTHDAY

英文電子報

A series of colorful programs will be held on Saturday to celebrate the 52nd anniversary of Tamkng University (TKU) on Nov. 8, 2002.

In order to attract more alumni to join the celebration activities, the celebration will start on Nov. 9 instead. The activities include exhibitions, seminars and demonstration.

The newly inaugurated Shao-Mo Memorial Natatorium Complex will be open free to alumni, the faculty and staff as well as students on Saturday and Sunday (Nov. 9-10).

In addition to holding inaugural ceremonies of Shao-Mo Memorial Natatorium Complex and Carrie Chang Music Hall, a fine arts exhibition, an international seminar on futures studies and the exhibition of orchid will be also held.

The activities will be climaxed by a rally marking the 52nd birthday of TKU. A cooperation agreement on academic exchange with Charles University of Czechoslovakia will be also held on Nov. 9.

An international meeting on TKU globalization, Education and Language jointly held by the College of Foreign Languages and Literature and College of Education will be at Chueh-sheng International Conference Hall, Tamsui Campus, TKU on Nov. 15-16, 2002.

A music concert to celebrate the 52nd birthday of TKU will be held at the newly inaugurated Carrie Chang Music Hall on Tamsui Campus, Nov. 27, 2002.