

600 Individuals Participate in the National Transportation Academy and the Academic Discussion Conference

學校要聞

【Reported by Hui-ru Li, Tamkang Times】 On December 5th and 6th the Department of Transportation and Management held the annual “2013 National Transportation Academy and the Academic Discussion Conference” . In attendance was Director of the Ministry of Transportation and Communications, Chih-ku Fan, Mayor of Yilan County, Tsung-Hsien Lin, Chairperson of the Taiwan Transportation Association, Xinli Zhang, Vice President of Academic Affairs, Gwo-Hsing Yu, Director of the Department of Transportation and Management, Chi-chung Tao, and 600 transportation students and enthusiasts.

Chi-chung Tao expressed that this annual meeting invites individuals in related fields of transportation from junior colleges all of the the world. The theme of this year’ s conference is “Increasing the Wonder and Innovative Services of Transportation” . Taiwan University’ s philosophy professor, Huo-wang Lin, gave a speech that spoke about the morales of a blissful lifestyle. It was followed by the Head of the Taiwan Area National Freeway Bureau, Da-ren Tseng, lecturing on the Taiwan Freeway ETC Taxi Policy. In the end they held a banquet that served over 40 tables accompanied with enchanting dance and music performances.