

7 NEW INSTITUTES FOUNDED, TKU RESHUFFLES HER LINE—UP

英文電子報

Tamkang has reshuffled her lineup in which four deans of colleges and 19 department chairs have changed hands.

At the same time, seven new institutes were set up on Aug. 1 to further upgrade TKU's teaching and research quality.

Among the seven newly founded institutes, the Life Science Development Center became a catching eye news, indicating that TKU will cast her energy and vigor to tap the development of life science in the future.

Dr. Chang Horng-jinh, President of TKU, presided over a presentation and hand-changing ceremony held at the Chuehsheng International Conference Hall, Tamsui Campus on Aug. 1.

President Chang said that a life science graduate institute would be set up in 2003 on Lanyang Campus, Ilan County. The graduate institute will further promote to a rank of college in 2005 when Lanyang Campus become operational, he said.

Dr. Liao Yi-lan, a TKU alumna who obtained a doctorate degree from the Illinois University, has already nominated to head the newly founded Center.

Prof. Ke Chih-en was nominated to head the newly founded Graduate Institute of Educational Psychology and Counseling, while Prof. Chen Kuo-hua heading the Graduate Institute of Futures Studies. Prof. Chen Bo-chang was the Director of Center for the Study of Higher Education and Prof. Huang Ping-huan, Dean of College of Education, was acting Director of Center for Curriculum and Instruction Research.

Huang Hui-nan was appointed to chief the newly founded Publishing Center under the control of the Office of Educational Development. Wang Di-yu was the Chief of the newly set up Recruitment Section under the control of the Office of Academic Affairs.

Prof. Kao Po-yuan assumed Dean of the College of Liberal Arts, replacing outgoing Prof. Huang Shih-hsiung. Prof. Hsiao Feng-hsiung replaced Prof. Chiu Chung-jung to be Dean of the College of Business while Prof. Hsu Ding-chi replacing Prof. Tsai Hsin-fu to head the College of Technology. Hu Yi-jen took the place of Hsu Ding-chi to be Dean of Educational Development Center.

Nineteen newly-appointed chairpersons of the departments are as follows: Tsui Cheng-tsong, Department of Chinese Chien Chuan-jen, Department of Mathematics Chang Ching-ling, Department of Physics Chen Chen-cheng, Department of Architecture Chang Te-wen, Department of Civil Engineering Kang Shang-wen, Department of Mechanical and Electro-mechanical Engineering Yang Lung-chieh, Section of Engineering Experiment Yu Jo-jung, Department of Industrial Economics Nei Chien-chung, Department of Banking and Finance Hau Tsung-jen, Department of Insurance Huang Tai-hsin, Department of Economics Tsai Su-ling, Department of French Huang Chieh-cheng, Graduate Institute of International Affairs and Strategic Studies Kuo Chien-chung, Graduate Institute of China Studies Kung Yi-chun, Graduate Institute of Southeast Asian Studies Chiu Ta-huan, Graduate Institute of European Studies Tzou Chong-ko, Center for International Affairs and National Security Shing Chi-lyang, Department of Construction and Duan Yung-ding, Center for Technological and Operational Development.