Many students expressed their joys and excitements for having realized their long cherished dream of furthering their studies in a foreign country. Here are some of their feedbacks: Miss Chen Jui-zong (English): "I've always wanted to do a double-major. Now I have been admitted into Lyons 3 Universite. You ask me what I'd like to do once I set my foot on France. I tell you I want to ride in the European trains. It must be quite an experience." Miss Lee Yi-shan: "My destination is Poland. I'm not afraid of going so far away. Besides, I've heard that in Poland there are so many handsome boys. Wow!" Mr. Huang Hsin-yuan (History): "I've studied Spanish, French and Japanese. Now I am about to learning another language I want to experience what is considered the sternest national characteristics as may be embodied in a language called the Korean language." Chu Chun-han (Sophomore, Information Management): "My first intention is to study in Brandon U. Canada, because I've heard their Music Department is a good one. Now I'm going to Curtin U. in Australia. That's not bad at all. At least the credits I earned there can be counted in my home Department." involuntarily shall be exonerated from this rule.
