【Reported by Yi-wan Lu, Tamkant Times】 The day before yesterday, Tamkang University signed an agreement with Tokushima Bunri University (TBU), making it TKU' s 173rd sister school, and the 31st sister school from Japan. TBU was founded in 1895, giving it a history of 120 years. They have a university department as well as an elementary school and graduate institute. The university department has 9 colleges and 26 departments including science, engineering, business, music, medicine and many more. It stands out as an exceptional school among 600 academic institutes in Japan.
