

Alumni of the Department of Japanese Makes 10-Year Donation Plan

學校要聞

【Yi-mei Chen, Tamsui Campus Report】 Alumni of the Department of Japanese and President of Tomikei Sho Trading Company, Feng-peng Lin, is also parent to a student currently in the Department of French. Feng-peng Lin returned to Tamkang University for a visit in support of the Tamkang Foreign Language and Literatures publications. Dean of the College of Foreign Languages and Literature, Hsi-deh Wu, expressed, “It is such a pleasure to continually have the support of such an esteemed figure. I hope it serves as an inspiration to the current generation of TKU students.” Feng-peng Lin has promised to contribute 100,000 NT a year to TKU for the next ten years. He gave supportive words to the students of the College of Foreign Languages and Literature while giving advice for future development.