T.K.U. alumni/ae, as may be expected, figure forth prominently in every year's festive activities. A founding conference on the Library Congress of T.K.U. Alumni/ae in Greater Taipei area, a 30-year Reunion of Business Administration/Banking and Insurance/International Trade majors, a Convention of Alumni/ae Association in Taiwan and a Convention of Worldwide Alumni/ae will all be held on that special day.

November 8th, nevertheless, is not an official holiday. It is a "business as usual" day, meaning that T.K.U. will observe her birthday routinely as any other workaday. A new spirit, perhaps?
